

Vice President - Operations - Anthony Hasselbring

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Anthony Hasselbring is an experienced manager with 25 years' experience with an emphasis on customer support and depot level maintenance. Key positions held have included management of new store installations and large repair depots.

EMPLOYMENT SUMMARY

2003 to Present – Transport Data Systems – VP/Director of Operations

Responsible for Manufacturing, Purchasing, Customer Support, Field Installation & Maintenance. During his career with Transport Data Systems he:

- Managed the installation and maintenance of 11 inspection stations along the northern Florida border for the Florida Department of Agriculture Law Enforcement Department.
- Managed the installation of an entire toll system at South Bay Expressway in San Diego as a subcontractor to InTrans (2006). System included ticket machines, lane controllers, displays and various lane sensors including vehicle classification and violation enforcement equipment. – South Bay Expressway.
- Designed and oversaw the creation of the TDS production facility.
- Oversaw the production of 270 bus stop arm computer systems for Redflex.
- Oversaw the management of all TDS projects including installation planning and implementation. This included the Horseshoe Bay Ferry Terminal installation of the vehicle pre-classification system.
- Led the installation of a new MiSYS MRP system.
- Established policies and procedures for the Operations Department.
- Oversaw the creation and operation of the product support HOT line at TDS.

1989-2003 – Best Buy

2001 – 2003- Technical Manager, Repair Services

Responsible for the hiring, training, and performance of 54 technicians plus 15 support staff in the technical area. Responsibilities involved maintaining technician productivity, scheduling technicians to maintain backlog and turn-time expectations within budget constraints, scheduling vendor trainings and meeting with vendor representatives to discuss repair issues.

1997-2001 - Technical Supervisor, Repair Services

Responsibilities include supervising operations of the technical aspects of a service center as well as maintaining a warehouse facility.

1989 - 1996 – Store Manager

Served as a general manager for six years in four different store locations.

EDUCATION

BSEE – Agribusiness/Economics - Illinois State University (1985)